[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PORTSMOUTH, VA., April 27.—Richmond and Portsmouth battled to a no-score draw here this afternoon. Umpire Mace calling the struggle off at the end of the eighth chapter on account of darkness.

From the start the game was a pitchers' battle, with Bussey doing great work for the Champion Colts, and Clunn, the college finger, of the Trainers, working in fine form for the locals. Bussey allowed but two singles, passed only one man and fanned five, while the Champs were able to find Clunn for only two singles and a double. However, Clunn walked two and hit three.

At the opening of the game was anything but favorable for either players or spectators, the sky being filled with heavy, threatening clouds. A slight rain during the morning soaked the outfield, and consequently the ball was slippery and hard for the pitchers to handle.

Clunn showed his nerve and skill in the seventh, when, with the bases full and none out, he pulled himself out without a score. Richmond had a man at third three times, but sharp fielding prevented a run. The Trainers never were able to get a man past second base.

Both teams put up a clean exhibition of fielding and added considerable to the interest of the game by continuous chatter of encouragement to the pitchers. The score:

ROANOKE POLICE PROTECT PENDER

When Umpire Calls Niehd Out in Ninth Crowd Rushes on Field.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., April 27.—Surrounded by a guard of eight policemen, Umpire Pender walked to the city this afternoon. With the game 3 to 2 in favor of Norfolk, Niehd came up and lined out one for three bases. With one man out, the chances were bright to tie the score, but the umpire thought differently and called Niehd out, claiming that he did not touch first base.

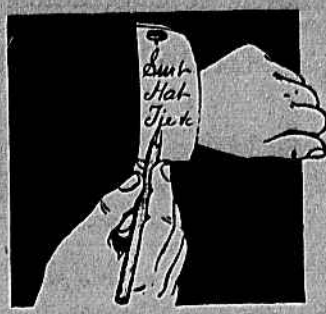

At the end of the game the crowd swarmed on the diamond and surrounded the umpire. Policemen were promptly called to his protection, and thus surrounded, he was brought to the city and taken to the police station and followed by a crowd. Later he was escorted to his home. Pender's work yesterday was far from satisfactory, and to-day it was even worse. The game was hard fought, Roanoke

Cars in Plenty for Patrons of Ball Park

Every afternoon that baseball is played in the Broad Street Park the Passenger and Power Company will have a sufficient number of cars parked at the head of Broad Street waiting to carry the crowd home after the game. The patrons of the ball games will be spared a little pain, for more than three minutes, they will be carried to their destination in cars giving ample room for comfortable riding.

These cars are held especially for the baseball crowds, and could not be kept waiting at the gates in Broad Street without giving up the whole Broad Street service. A representative of the Passenger and Power Company is in the ball park at each game waiting for the cars to be called in, in which case he comfortably. All danger of accidents will be eliminated if the patrons of the ball games will but take their time and getting into a car late is not already crowded.

During the games last week ten to twelve cars were turned back to the street each day. This was after hundreds of people had crowded themselves uncomfortably into the cars that they found at the gate instead of waiting for the cars to be called in, in which case they comfortably. All danger of accidents will be eliminated if the patrons of the ball games will but take their time and getting into a car late is not already crowded.

That's right, put it down so you won't forget it. You'll be wanting to appear "Springy" most any day now.

We're rather "stuck" on our Men's Suit display ourselves.

Our Cheviots, Serges and Worsteds, cut in accordance with fashion's spring edict, with all the new quirks, are certainly beautiful—they are so handsomely tailored, too!

Not high, when we say $15.00, $18.00 or $25.00.

Then, we've the Hat to fit your face at $2.00, $2.50 or $3.00.

Choice Neckwear at 25c and 50c. Other toggery embellishments—all fresh and priced pleasingly.

DANVILLE WHIPS SHOEMAKERS AGAIN

Rain Stops Pretty Game in Sixth Inning With Score 1 to 0.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., April 27.—The Lynchburg-Danville game was broken up after five innings of pretty baseball by a downpour of rain. The score stood 1 to 0 in favor of the home team. The contest had fair to be close and exciting. Both teams were playing fast from the start. The home team, the only hit secured off him being a slow grounder to shortstop, secured by Hooker. The visitors, the only hit secured off him being a single and stolen base, Sullivan's sacrifice and Fisher's single. The score:

Sidelights on the Games

Bussey pitched a masterly game and deserved a victory. He allowed the Trainers but two singles and passed only one of them. There is some class to that kind of flinging.

Backs full in the seventh and none out, when the outfield would have meant victory. George Smith was there with a double.

Three victories and no defeats.

"Dutch" Reville goes against the Trainers to-day. That ought to mean victory for the Champs.

These Roanoke Highlanders come into our midst to-morrow for a series of three.

Danville's Red Sox took another fall out at the shoemakers. The Sox showed the Champions and the Richmond fans last week that they are some ball players.

The Roanoke fans do not seem to have taken at all kindly to Umpire Pender. That is an old and experienced ball player, and should make a good umpire.

STIRRING SCENES MARK OPENING OF HORSE SALE

Many Handsome Trotters and Pacers, Saddlers and Roadsters Go Under Hammer.

RACERS PERFORM WELL

O. H. Berry Buys Lady Bourbon, the Sale Being Feature Event of Day.

Stirring scenes marked the first day of the annual spring sale of high-class horses yesterday at the Southern Stock Yards. Two hundred or more enthusiastic horsemen crowded the pit, and at times the bidding was spirited. There was much lively, happy chatter and many exclamations of admiration of the beauty and grace of the blooded animals exhibited on the covered speedway. A bevy of charming women filled the gaily decorated stand in front of the pit, and they manifested an intense interest in the sales and the performance of the horses.

Handsome and spirited trotters and pacers, with and without records; carriage saddlers, single and in pairs; gaited saddlers, ring horses and blue ribbon winners were sold under the hammer. As the racers sped down the speedway in exhibition performances the men would crowd into the centre of the pit to watch them, and then again would open up to let the animals pass through the crowd at top speed. Frequently the horses were cheered and applauded from the men and women.

O. H. Berry Buys Lady Bourbon. The feature event of the day was the sale of Lady Bourbon, a noted high-stepper, representing the cream of Kentucky breeding. The exhibition performance she showed sensational form, speed and action, and as she dashed past the auction stand the crowd again broke into vigorous applause.

When the handsome mare was brought to a standstill for inspection the bidding opened up at a rapid pace and was the most spirited of the day. The offers quickly leaped by $50 and $25 from $300 to $550. The horse finally was bid in by Oscar H. Berry, of Richmond, for $550. Up to that time this was the top notch price of the sale.

Lady Bourbon was consigned to the sale by R. N. Anderson, of Bristol, Tenn. She was sired by Bourbon Wilkes, out of Kentucky Queen, by Baron Dillon.

Large Sale in Southeast. This sale is the largest auction sale of horses held in the Southeast. About 700 head of horses of all kinds, representing stock farms in Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Maryland, Ohio, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, and on sale, and buyers are present from practically every State in the East.

Virginia and North Carolina are well represented, and many of the sales yesterday were made to horsemen of these two States.

Contrary to expectations, the sale of the catalogued horses was not finished yesterday, and it will be resumed at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The remaining catalogued horses probably will be disposed of shortly after noon to-day, when the sale of general purpose horses will be taken up. The sale will be finished some time Friday.

About 150 head were disposed of yesterday, the aggregate sale price being about $10,000. The highest purchase price of the day was $710 and the lowest was $125. According to well informed horsemen, some rare bargains were had yesterday, and the attendance to-day of bidders probably will be larger than on the first day.

Stallion, Chestnut, $710. One of the finest horses sold yesterday was the chestnut stallion Chester, sold by Ashland Wilkes, record 2:17.4. The stallion showed great speed, fine form and much class in the exhibition performance and was admired by all. The animal was bid in by Cochran and Ross, of Charlotte, N. C., at $710, the top-notch price of the sale.

Lord Chesterfield, the famous local runaway horse, which won seven blue ribbons in Richmond and other cities last year, and which was consigned by D. F. Coleman, of Manchester, was placed on sale, but later was withdrawn, the highest bid received being $310. Several other blooded horses also were withdrawn late in the afternoon, and the sale of the fastest trotters and pacers was sold were Maxine Payne, a brown mare, consigned by L. R. Smith, of Richmond; Wharton, a bay gelding, consigned by Baker and Green, of Emporia; Sadie Temple, a bay mare, consigned by M. Rogers, of Bristol, S. C.; Sadie King, bay mare, consigned by M. Rogers, of Bristol, S. C.; Greenboro, N. C.; Virginia Creeper, bay mare, consigned by W. W. Carr, of Radford, Va.; Belle Isle, gray mare, consigned by W. W. Carr, of Radford, Va.; and a bay gelding, consigned by B. F. Smyth & Son, Alliance, O.

Some of Prices Paid. Maxine Payne, which has a record of 2:16 1/4, was bid in by E. T. Elliott, of Dillon, S. C., at $525. Wharton had a record of 2:10 1/4, and was bought by J. J. Horne, of Fremont, N. C., at $200. G. A. Horvont bought Sadie Temple, 2:18 1/4, at $255, and George M. Harden, of Raleigh, N. C., got Sadie King, 2:20 1/4, at $300. Georgia Lady, 2:26, went to R. L. Cravall, of North Carolina, for $500. J. P. Holoman, of Rick Square, N. C., bought Virginia Creeper, 2:24 1/4, at $225, and Dr. J. P. McDonough, of Richmond, bought in Belle Isle, pace 2:19 1/4, trot 2:30, for $295. Lizzie M., 2:19 1/4, went to J. B. Jenkins, of 220 1/2 N. C., at $255. Frances Morrell, 3:32, was bid in by George M. Harden, of Raleigh, N. C., at $400. Eugene Johnstone, of Littleton, N. C., bought in Norval Clay and Onward Clay, a handsome pair of bay geldings, at $1,000. Turner and Colonel G. H. Harris were the auctioneers, and they were assisted by Colonel David MacFarlane, of Buffalo, N. Y., one of the most noted horse auctioneers in the world, disposing of 787 horses under the hammer in eight hours and fifteen minutes. The sale is conducted by T. A. Smyth and J. C. Smyth, directors of the Richmond Special Horse Sale Company.
